This encyclopedia aims to provide clarity on its core beliefs, history, practices, and organizational structure, serving as a valuable resource for both newcomers and seasoned scholars of the faith.

Historical Background of Orthodox Christianity

The Origins and Early Development

Orthodox Christianity traces its origins to the earliest Christian communities established in the Eastern Roman Empire. It considers itself the continuation of the original church founded by Jesus Christ and his apostles. Key historical milestones include:

- Formation of the early church in the 1st century CE, particularly in regions like Jerusalem, Antioch, and Alexandria.
- The First Council of Nicaea in 325 CE, which addressed theological disputes and established foundational doctrines such as the nature of Christ.
- The Great Schism of 1054 CE, which formally divided Christianity into Western (Roman Catholic) and Eastern (Orthodox) branches.

The Development of Orthodox Theological Identity

Post-schism, the Eastern Orthodox Church developed distinct theological, liturgical, and cultural identities. Influenced by Greek philosophy, Byzantine politics, and local traditions, it maintained:

- A focus on the continuity of Holy Tradition, including the Bible, Church Fathers, ecumenical councils, and liturgical practices.
- A decentralized structure comprising autocephalous (self-governing) churches.
- Emphasis on the mystical and sacramental life of the church.

Core Beliefs and Doctrine

The Holy Trinity

At the heart of Orthodox doctrine is the belief in one God in three persons:

- God the Father
- God the Son (Jesus Christ)
- God the Holy Spirit

This doctrine emphasizes the consubstantiality (homoousios) of the Son with the Father, established at the First Council of Nicaea.

The Incarnation and Salvation

Orthodox Christianity teaches that Jesus Christ is both fully divine and fully human. His incarnation, crucifixion, and resurrection are central to salvation:

- The Incarnation?God becoming flesh in Jesus Christ to redeem humanity.
- The Cross?Christ?s sacrifice as the atonement for sin.
- The Resurrection?defeating death and offering eternal life.

The Holy Spirit and the Church

The Holy Spirit is believed to proceed from the Father, inspiring the Church and guiding believers. The Church is regarded as the Body of Christ:

- It is both visible and spiritual, composed of the faithful.
- It is the steward of Holy Tradition.

Salvation and Theosis

A distinctive teaching in Orthodoxy is the concept of theosis, or deification, where believers become partakers of divine nature through grace:

- Participating in the sacraments.
- Living a life of prayer, fasting, and moral discipline.
- Striving to mirror Christ?s virtues.
