The Composer and the Era

Giacomo Carissimi (1605?1674) was an Italian composer renowned for his pioneering work in the development of oratorio and sacred music during the 17th century. His compositions are characterized by expressive vocal lines, inventive use of harmony, and a mastery of text setting, making his works a cornerstone of Baroque sacred repertoire.

Dixit Dominus (Latin for "The Lord Has Spoken") is a psalm setting based on Psalm 110 (111 in some Latin versions), traditionally used in Vespers and other liturgical services. The version often referred to as Dixit Dominus 1 is believed to be an early or particularly distinctive setting, perhaps the first in a series or a primary version that has garnered scholarly attention.
