Statistically, the promotion board selects approximately 70-80% of eligible majors for advancement, re?ecting a highly competitive environment. This percentage varies slightly depending on the branch of service (Infantry, Armor, Signal Corps, etc.) and the o?cer?s

specialty.

Moreover, data indicates that o?cers who complete advanced civilian education programs, such as a master?s degree in strategic studies or public administration, often have an edge in promotion considerations.
