What Is a Face Makeup Chart Blank?

A face makeup chart blank is essentially a template – an outline or sketch of a face with minimal details, usually focusing on the main facial features such as eyes, nose, lips, and cheeks. It's devoid of any makeup, serving as a starting point to experiment with colors, shapes, and styles. These charts can be printed or digital and come in various face shapes and sizes to accommodate different looks and preferences.

Makeup charts are widely used in the beauty industry for several reasons. They allow artists to plan out complex looks, practice color combinations, and even communicate their vision to clients or collaborators before the actual application. This not only saves time but also reduces the risk of mistakes during the makeup process.

Why Use a Face Makeup Chart Blank?

Layer Colors and Details

Build your look gradually by adding eyeshadow, eyeliner, mascara, eyebrow shapes, lip colors, and any artistic details such as glitter or face jewels. Don't forget to note the names or shades of the products used alongside the chart for future reference.

Use Labels and Notes

To make your face makeup chart blank even more useful, add notes on techniques, brush types, or product brands. This extra information can be a valuable reference when recreating the look on a real face.
