Some schools create "poetry walls" where students post their tributes, turning hallways into galleries of appreciation. This practice builds community and reminds teachers daily of the difference they make.

Beyond the Classroom: Poems for All Educators

While we often think of classroom teachers, educators come in many forms – mentors, coaches, tutors, or even parents who teach life lessons. Short poems can honor all those who contribute to learning and growth.

For instance, a poem dedicated to a music teacher, sports coach, or librarian can highlight the diverse ways education enriches us.
