This article provides an investigative and detailed examination of the case, exploring the background, key issues, strategic interventions, and lessons learned, all aimed at providing valuable insights for practitioners and scholars alike.

Background of Mexicana Wire Product

Mexicana Wire Product (MWP) was established in the early 1980s as a leading manufacturer of wire and wire products serving various industries such as construction, automotive, and consumer goods. Over the years, the company expanded its product line and geographic reach, becoming a significant player in the North American wire market.

However, by the late 1990s and early 2000s, MWP faced mounting challenges. Increased competition from low-cost producers, rising operational costs, and changing customer preferences began to erode its market share. Internal inefficiencies and outdated production processes compounded these issues, prompting the company to seek strategic solutions to regain its competitive edge.
