Combining local talent with compelling storytelling, these plays offer a fresh perspective on Nairobi's contact points—places, people, and moments that define the city. In this article, we delve into the significance of these six short plays, their themes, and how they celebrate Nairobi's vibrant contact points through theatrical artistry.

Understanding Six and the City 6 Short Plays on Nairobi Contact

What Are the Six Short Plays?

The Six and the City project is a curated collection of short plays, each lasting approximately 15-20 minutes, designed to highlight different aspects of Nairobi life. These plays are written and performed by local playwrights, actors, and directors, emphasizing authenticity and cultural relevance.

The Concept of "Nairobi Contact"

The phrase "Nairobi contact" refers to the various touchpoints—physical, social, and emotional—that connect individuals to the city. These include busy markets, public transportation, social gatherings, digital interactions, and informal urban spaces. The plays aim to showcase how these contact points shape identities, relationships, and the collective experience of Nairobians.

Themes Explored in the Short Plays

Urban Identity and Diversity

Each play explores Nairobi's multicultural makeup, highlighting the blend of traditions, languages, and lifestyles that coexist within the city. The characters often represent different ethnic backgrounds, economic classes, and age groups, illustrating the city's diversity.

Modern Challenges and Social Issues

Themes such as traffic congestion, youth unemployment, gender dynamics, and digital connectivity are prominent. The plays shed light on how Nairobi residents navigate these challenges daily.

Contact Points and Human Connections

The core of these plays revolves around the contact points—how people meet, interact, and influence each other within Nairobi's urban landscape. These interactions reveal both the struggles and resilience of the city's inhabitants.

Overview of Each Short Play

1. The Matatu Diaries

- Setting: Inside a Nairobi matatu (public minibus)
