The earliest attempts to bring Mahabharat to Bengali audiences involved translating or scripting the original Sanskrit text into Bengali. These efforts were primarily literary, with stage adaptations and radio plays forming the initial mediums of storytelling.

As television became more accessible in India during the late 20th century, producers recognized the potential of visual storytelling. The first Bengali-dubbed Mahabharat was produced as part of regional adaptations of the Hindi version, which gained popularity nationwide. These early dubbing efforts aimed to make the story accessible to those who preferred local languages and dialects.

The 1988 Doordarshan Telecast

The most significant milestone in Mahabharat Bengali dubbing was the 1988 telecast of the Hindi version produced by B.R. Chopra.
