This review delves into the origins, characteristics, notable works, and cultural significance of jazz missa brevis, providing a comprehensive understanding of this innovative genre.

Origins and Historical Context

Roots in Sacred and Jazz Traditions

The missa brevis (Latin for "short mass") is a liturgical form that emphasizes brevity and simplicity, often used during Catholic services to facilitate easier singing and participation. Its structure typically includes the core mass movements—Kyrie, Gloria, Credo, Sanctus, and Agnus Dei—rendered in a condensed format.

Jazz, originating in the late 19th and early 20th centuries in African American communities, is characterized by improvisation, swing rhythms, and complex harmonies. Its evolution has led to numerous subgenres, from bebop to free jazz, each emphasizing spontaneous creativity and expressive freedom.

The intersection of these two traditions—sacred music and jazz—begins to take shape in the mid-20th century. Early experiments involved jazz musicians improvising within liturgical settings or adapting hymnody with jazz harmonies. Over time, composers began explicitly to craft jazz missa brevis compositions, seeking to create liturgical works that resonate with contemporary musical language.

Pioneering Composers and Works

- George Russell and Eric Whitacre are notable figures who have contributed to this cross-genre exploration, though Whitacre's work leans more toward choral minimalism than jazz.

- The American composer and jazz musician Dave Brubeck once expressed interest in creating liturgical music with jazz influences, inspiring subsequent composers.

- The 20th-century composer George Walker and Morten Lauridsen have, in different contexts, explored sacred themes with jazz harmonies, though not explicitly labeled as jazz missa brevis.

The formalization of jazz missa brevis as a genre takes clearer shape in the late 20th and early 21st centuries with the works of composers like Joan La Barbara, Billy Childs, and John Harbison, who integrated jazz idioms into sacred music structures.
